DRAMA IN BEAUFORT - AND CHARITY IS THE WINNER..... all the world was a stage last December as Beaufort Drama Group returned to the stage after an absence of 13 years, they performed on the stage at Beaufort Community Centre to rapturous applause and full houses each night. The fruits of their labour were rewarded when on the first week of January they donated the proceeds from one performance to charity. Cheques for €1000 each were presented to Marie O'Carroll of Pieta House and €1000 to Vera O'Leary of the Kerry Rape Crisis Centre. Thanks to all who supported us and also who bought the DVD, also our generous sponsors. The lights have been flickering in the hall again, so I think there may be some planning for another end of year presentation. Best wishes to all our parishioners and may 2013 bring you all you desire.
